

Mohamed Mohamed

Software Test Engineer with manual, Performance, and Automation testing expertise. I have a proven track record of successfully adapting to Agile Software Development Life Cycle methodologies. Additionally, my strong background in computer science equips me with knowledge and skills to effectively contribute to development activities and employ testing techniques, I have also been actively involved in mentoring aspiring software testers at Nezam for software testing, where I have shared my knowledge

Certificates

- Certified ISTQB Foundation Level Tester.
- Certified ISTQB Performance Tester
- Certified Project Management from Google.

Education

Bachelor of Computer Science:

Thebes Academy – 2020 -> 2024

Reference

Performance testing using JMeter

Automation testing using Selenium

Bug reporting using Jira, Trello, Google sheets

Postman [ For API Testing ]

Work history

Software Testing Engineer – 12/2021 to present

Nezam., Cairo

- Participated in agile ceremonies (stand-ups, sprint planning and retrospectives)
- Conducted test planning, test case creation, and test execution for multiple software projects.
- Executed both manual and automated tests to ensure the quality and functionality of software products.
- Utilized bug tracking systems to report and track defects, and followed up on their resolution.

Top Rated Software testing engineer on Upwork – 04/2022 to present

Upwork., Remote

- Collaborated with development teams to identify, document, and resolve software defects.
- Developed and executed test plans, test cases, and test scripts, covering functional, regression, performance, and usability testing.
- Collaborated with cross-functional teams, including developers and business analysts, to understand project requirements and ensure proper test coverage.
- Worked closely with stakeholders to gather and analyze requirements, ensuring comprehensive test coverage.